PLEDGE TO BREWSTER HIGH

We're loyal to you Brewster High,
We're red and white Brewster High,
We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land
For we know you'll do grand Brewster High.
Amid the great broad fields that nourish our land,
For honest battle and for freedom, we stand
And unto you, we pledge our hearts and hands,
Dear B. H. S. we're true to you.

Foreword

On the pages of this book is written the story of one of the happiest years of our lives. The Shelokum Staff of 1954 invites you to join us in reliving these experiences. As you delve through the pages, may your enjoyment equal ours.

BREWSTER HIGH SCHOOL
Brewster, Washington

Dedication

WE DEDICATE TO YOUTH.....

As the 1954 graduates are handed their diplomas, they will embark on the road of life ahead, wherever it may take them.

And proceeding side by side with youth along that road will be progress. With that eagerness to advance which only youth can provide and with the wisdom which youth can obtain only from older generations, that road will lengthen. Each problem faced, whether or not the answer will prove to be the true one, will be a stepping-stone.

Today, as youth leaves through graduation, the world of high school and its joys, it will be met by the seriousness of living in an age of atomic power. And on the shoulders of youth will be placed the consequence of that power.

This book is dedicated to youth with the hope that the goal which they seek will be inspired by a higher Power than that which a scientist could provide.

As youth moves, so shall the progress of the world.

"The youth of a nation are the trustees of posterity." Disraeli

Girls Club

All girls enrolled in Brewster High School are members of the Girls Club. The club sends two girls to Girls State each year. Our representatives for this year are Shirley Utt, Joyce Gebhardt, and Bonnie Schofield alternate. Louise Maas is to be sent by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The club maintained concessions at the football and baseball games, sold subscriptions to the BREWSTER HERALD, and co-sponsored two one-act plays--"Roughly Speaking" and "Springtime for Skippy."

Events that took place during the year were the Big and Little Sister Party held in the fall, and a picnic in April.

Los Tapitios, the Spanish Club newly organized this year, is bringing new ideas into school activities. The club motto of Los Tapatios (name for the inhabitants of the state of Jalisco) is "Mejarar las Relaciones Humanas," meaning, "To improve human relations." The purposes and aims of this group are to improve student opportunities for communicating with Spanish-speaking people, to promote interest in Spanish language and culture throughout the community, and to develop citizens for a future unified world.

Activities that the club has undertaken are meeting with the adult group of night school, corresponding with Mexican firms concerning newspaper and magazine subscriptions, records and music, and a meeting with prospective students planning to take Spanish to explain what is important in learning the Spanish language.

The officers for 1953-1954 are Patricia Steele--president, Shirley Riggan--vice-president, Joyce Gebhardt--secretary-treasurer, and Raymond Raub--reporter. We would like to thank Mr. Harper, our advisor, for the advice and suggestions he has given us.

The Pep Club has finally found its place in school activities. Its main objective was to cultivate, to promote, and to spread school spirit, enthusiasm, cooperation, and wholeheartedness for school activities.

Among their activities were the decorating of goal posts, welcoming visiting teams, helping to promote good sportsmanship, and contributing to the entertainment during basketball season at home games and at the county and district tournaments as a drill team unit.

The members would like to extend their appreciation and thanks to their advisor, Mr. Kollmar, their president, Betty Pool, and their drill leader, Bonnie Schofield, for the ideas, good leadership, and advice.

The Brewster High School Chorus, under the direction of Bruce W. Kolmar, has had a full year of music that all loved sing. Hard work produced good results. On December 17, 1953, the chorus presented a cantata, "The Carols of Christmas," by Ellen Lorenz. At the music festival in Omak on March 24 and 22, the group sang "Mizpah" by William A. Goldsworthy and "God Most Glorious" by Helen G. Pohlmann, and received a superior rating. Their participation in the Annual Spring Concert was also highly commendable.

Football

Although the Bears had a small team this year they fought well for their size, against all their opponents. The season results did reflect the spirit and the enthusiasm that went into each game by the individual players.

TIME: June 1, 1974

PLACE: Hollywood, California

EVENT: The premier of the new motion picture "The Moon is Purple."

The lights are shining brightly as we drive up to the theatre. This is one of the most important premiers of all times; all the top personalities will be here. As we step from our car who should greet us but photographers! Millions of them are flashing their cameras! Whom should we see right in the middle of all of them but Joe Cleveland and Dave Van Loan. Say, these two are really making a name for themselves taking pictures of all the top stars! It is said that they specialize in making calendars.

We finally got away from them. I wonder who will stop us next? Oh, there's the top columnist for Hollywood who writes "Gossip Gimics" for the "Moony Movie" magazine. I believe her name is Glendal Fitzhugh. And they say she really has a nose for news. Ah, getting by her wasn't so easy. But we finally made it into the theatre. Oh, there are my two old friends, Pat Steele and Shirley Riggan! Pat is an usher and Shirley hands out programs. They are working their way through nurses' training, but they've been at it so long now one wonders if they'll ever make it.

Well, here we are in our seats. Let's look over the program and see who's in "The Moon is Purple." The co-stars are Betty Jo Pool and Kenneth Rutherford. You know, that Ken Rutherford is positively the greatest lover ever. Why, I bet he's dated every eligible girl in Hollywood. They say that when Betty Pool sings the blues in this movie it really sends you. What's this? In supporting roles are Marilyn Whitehall and Jerry Wilson! Oh, I heard about that. It's said that their love scene in the last is something to see. I wonder!

Look who's walking down the aisle. It's Dick Renner, the producer... I wish I had the money he's got, a multimillionaire, no less. He's got his private secretary, Deloris Shrable, and his chauffeur, Howard Guenther, with him. I guess he never goes any place without them; they're so efficient.

What's all that confusion over there? Oh, the bouncer, Ivan Kimball, has to escort someone out, some trouble-maker, I suppose. I feel safe with Ivan bouncing though, he's so big and brawny. Why, there's Leon Bartley, the celebrated director of "The Moon is Purple." He has Della Mathers with him. She owns one of the largest clubs in New York; and just think, she started with a mere coffee shop in a trailer house.

Back to my program. It says that the music is composed and directed by Barbara Williams. It should be good then; she always features a solo on the baritone sax. My, the gowns were designed by Pearl Howell! I wish she would design me a gown, she makes such beautiful creations! There's Tom Ansert, who owns the theatre. Behind him is Dr. Paslay, a famous woman doctor. I've heard that she performed her first operation on Mac Wilson, poor guy! Funeral arrangements were taken care of by Mortician, Larry Miller.

What's all the clapping for? Oh, the star Betty Jo just walked in with her agent, Ed Myers. Without that agent of hers she wouldn't be what she is today. There's Duane Harper and George Driskell, too. They are taking a vacation and touring the world; they just stayed in Hollywood long enough for the premier. What's this ad on the back of our program? It's advertising a boxing match! "Boxing at Madison Round Gardens tomorrow night. Featured bout between Orvis Guenther and Dave Hammons." That I must see. They really get rough. 'Spouse I can make it?

Say, look up in the box seats. There's Fred Davies, a senator, who flew in from Washington D. C. He certainly is a distinguished guest. Sitting beside him is Ed Shirk. He was just promoted to dean of the college here. Such an intellectual man! Who's that sitting up behind us? Why, it's Scooter Mason. She runs a reducing salon here in Hollywood; she specializes in removing fat spots. Seems she never gets hers removed, though.

Well, I had better turn around. The show is about to start and after all, that's what I came for.

Class History

Five of the Seniors, Marilyn Whitehall, Mac Wilson, Tom Ansert, Ed Meyers, and Duane Harper, have attended dear old Brewster School since starting in the first grade, the teacher being Mrs. Moore.

In 1943 Jerry Wilson started the first grade, and later skipped the seventh grade to join us in the 8th. In the second grade, "Big Ive" Kimball honored us with his presence, coming from Okanogan. George Driskell, from Tacoma, also joined our class that year. In the fourth grade, Pearl Howell entered our happy little gang, moving from Tonasket.

Our fifth grade found us receiving two happy students--Donelle Paslay from Oregon City, Oregon, and Shirley Riggan from Sheridan, Arkansas.

In 1948 a handsome lad, Fred Davies from Okanogan, joined us. Another lad entering was Dave Hammons from Bridgeport.

The seventh grade brought a landslide--five new students. Howard and Orvis Guenther, and Joe Cleveland from Monse, Glendal Fitzhugh from Leola, Arkansas, and Betty Jo Pool from Tahlquah, Oklahoma.

In 1950 we gained two more students: "Scooter" Mason from Wenatchee, and Dave Van Loan from Richland.

During our first year of high school, Pat Steele joined us from Nunda, New York, and Larry "Tex" Miller from Grand Coulee. We shall never forget what we went through to become full-fledged Freshmen--initiation!!

In 1952 two football players joined us. Ed Shirk from Grand Coulee, and Ken Rutherford from San Francisco, California. This year, as Sophomores, we really initiated the Freshmen, and also held a very successful "Handsome Harry and Pretty Polly" Dance.

Deloris Shrable from Cashmere joined us as a Junior. This year the outstanding event was the Junior Prom with Queen, "Scooter" Mason, and King, Fred Davies, reigning. Another social high light was our Junior Play, "Second Fiddle," where Jerry Wilson found himself engaged to Glendal Fitzhugh and married to Marilyn Whitehall. Girls' State representatives this year were "Scooter" Mason, Betty Jo Pool, and Donnelle Paslay.

Our mighty Senior year became more interesting as Leon Bartley from Seattle, Barbara Guilliams, Richland, and Della Mathers, Bellvue, entered Brewster High. We shall remember our Senior year for our successful Senior Ball, with Glendal Fitzhugh and Leon Bartley as royalty, our Senior Sneak, enjoyed by all, and our Senior Class play, "Everybody's Crazy," directed by Jerry Wilson.

The class of '54 has some outstanding students. Boys well known for their athletic ability are: Jerry Wilson, football and track; Orvis Guenther, football, basketball, baseball, and track, boxing and wrestling; Dave Hammons, boxing and wrestling, football, and baseball; Ivan Kimball, football, basketball, and baseball; Ed Shirk, football and basketball; Ken Rutherford, football; Joe Cleveland, football and basketball; Dave Van Loan, football; Fred Davies, basketball and baseball; Tom Ansert, football; Duane Harper, baseball.

The girls, too, were active in Pep Club, Girls' Club, and Dramatics. The cheerleaders for the season of '52, '53, and '54 were chosen from our class.

We Seniors feel that these memories of our school days will be cherished in our hearts, and that these years were numbered with the happiest years of our lives.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of nineteen hundred fifty-four, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, to be read on the first day of June, Nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

I, Eddie Myers, leave my job as Student Body treasurer to Dennis Van Loan along with the hopes, that he too, shall someday balance the books. My nickname, "Hank" given me by Mac Wilson, I give to Dick Nelson in hopes he will do it due honor and will it on.

I, Deloris Shrable, will my quiet disposition to Gary Damian in hopes it will do him some good.

I, Pat Steele, will my blushes to Wilma Paslay.

I, George Driskell, will my name "Whitey" to Ralph Fries.

I, Mac Wilson, will my jeep to anyone who can start it in the morning and has enough money to keep it running.

I, Jerry Wilson, will my ability to tell jokes to Herschel Riggan, and my riding ability to Billie Pool. She needs it!

I, Betty Jo Pool, will my alto voice to Elbert Bissonnette in hopes it will lower his, my serious expression I will to Wayne Jensen because that mischievous look of his is always getting him into trouble with the teachers.

I, Scooter Mason, will my ability to bounce in the saddle willed to me by Eillen Willett to Bonita Crofoot and my fat spots to my sister Helen hoping she will get rid of them.

I, Barbara Guilliams, will my ability to play the baritone sax to anyone who thinks they are big enough to carry it and to anyone that loves to make a lot of noise.

I, Glendal Fitzhugh, will my position as cheerleader to Mary Jane Kirk with hopes that she has more ambition than I had. My office job that was willed to me last year to Janyce Aslakson.

I, Larry Miller, will my laziness to John Keidrowski.

I, Marilyn Whitehall, will my job as Student Body secretary to Shirley Utt to keep the minutes straight, and I will my ability to swing down the halls to Alan Brotherton.

I, David Van Loan, will my center spot to Rubin Rawley so that he can win the girls favor through his exploits.

I, Dave Hammons, will my black eyes willed to me from Pete Harvill to Tom Davies and my nickname steel fist to Archie Jack.

I, Howard Guenther, will my charge account at Goehry's to Lyle Detillion. He will need it.

I, Della Mathers, will my ability to serve coffee to someone with a big house.

I, Shirley Riggan, will my ability to get along with Mr. Leavitt to Sarah Roche in hopes that she will get B+ in his class too.

I, Kenneth Rutherford, will my height to Kenn Gorr.

I, Fred Davies, will my job as Student Body president to Lyle Haugsven if he likes "apple polishing," all my nicknames "champ," "chump," and "stats," to Tom Ansert in hopes he fills them as well as I did.

I, Leon Bartley, will my ability to pick up girls to someone with a truck or a bus.

I, Duane Harper, will all the knocks in my car to Don Misner as he will soon develop them anyway.

I, Pearl Howell, will my gift of being able to eat all I want and still not gain weight to anyone who is over weight.

I, Ivan Kimball, will my ability to hustle in sports to Lanny Hanford who could sure use it and a little of my weight to Bev Cavis who could stand to have it.

I, Joe Cleveland, will my good luck to Wayne Jensen but I know he will be luckier than I in sports and other things for he has been luckier than I ever since I've known him.

I, Dick Renner, will my ability as the states best manager to Harold Riggan. He needs it.

I, Donnelle Paslay, will my ability to ride to school every morning with a teacher, to any freshman who needs to get in good with the teacher.
